Zanes Mellupes (1981) darbi R?gas Fotogr?fijas bienn?les izst?d? “Restar” ir konceptu?li. No savas otr?s m?tne s zemes ??nas m?ksliniece atvedusi darbus, kuros atmi?as par Latviju un b?rn?bu savijas ar 15 Šanhaj? pavad?tajiem gadiem.

“Kopum? tie [darbi] ir ar? sava veida kult?rkodi, kas man, skatoties atpaka?, n?k l?dzi. K? Latvija ir ietekm?jusi manu vizu?lo izpratni un attiec?gi manas vizu?l?s valodas veidošanu,” skaidro Mellupe.

Zane Mellupe Šanhaj? veido daž?dus m?kslas projektus. ??n? vi?as darbi guvuši kriti?u atzin?bu par ori?in?lo ideju rad?t jaunu terminolo?iju.

Zane Mellupe savos darbos izveidojusi jaunu terminolo?iju. T?ds, piem?ram, ir termins “relatogr?fija”. Tas noz?m?, ka fotogr?fijai pievienots objekts, kurš paskaidro š?s fotogr?fijas saturu. “Relatogr?fija” – t?s ir attiec?bas starp objektu un att?lu.

Riga Art Space launched the main exhibition of “Riga Photo Biennale 2016” – “Restart” – on 21st April, in which the authors are also artists like Zane Mellupe (1981), who has been living in China for 15 years already.

Zane Mellupe’s works in Riga Photos biennial exhibition “Restart” are conceptual. The artist’s works intertwine between her time spent in what she calls her “second home country” – China, and the memories of her childhood in Latvia.

“In general, it [her work] is also a kind kult?rkodi to me, looking back, looking forward. As Latvia has affected my understanding of the visual and the visual language of my creative process” explains Mellupe.

Zane Mellupe’s stay in Shanghai consists of a variety of art projects. In China, her work gained critical acclaim for the original idea of creating a new terminology.

Zane Mellupe’s works created a new terminology. An example is the term “relatogr?fija”. This means that the photograph is related to an object, which explains the content of these photographs. “Relatogr?fija” – it is the relationship between the object and the picture.

As reported, the exhibition “Restart” is going from 22nd April to 12th June and will be displaying eighteen internationally recognised artists, who focus on the link between the past and the future.
